

HVAC Install Apprentice Job Posting

Position Summary:

The position of an HVAC Install Apprentice is to deliver exceptional HVAC installation service to the customer by completing and installing HVAC equipment and accessories.

Job Responsibilities:

- Assist the Lead Installation Technician with the installation of HVAC related equipment according to manufacturer's specifications.
- Support Lead Installer in:
 - Installing HVAC related equipment.
 - Installing Sheet metal duct systems.
 - Connecting gas lines to heating equipment.
 - Cutting and threading pipes.
 - Wiring both line voltage and low voltage to heating equipment.
 - Installing copper refrigerant line to air conditioning units, including soldering and brazing.
- Inspect area for cleanliness after job is completed.
- Perform other duties as assigned.

Requirements:

- High School diploma or GED required.
- EPA Certified or pursuing
- Nate Certification preferred.
- Prior work experience in the HVAC industry as an HVAC Install Apprentice.
- Must be able to use a computer tablet, smart phone and read a map or follow GPS
- Valid driver's license, and approved by Company's insurance carrier.
- Must be willing to work a flexible schedule (including weekends).

The company offers all full time employees:

- Medical, Dental; and Vision Insurance
- 401k
- Training
- Company paid one- week vacation PTO
- Direct Deposit
- Weekly Paycheck

EEOC Compliance Employer

All qualified candidates are required to undergo a pre-employment drug screen, MVR and background check